Founded in October 2006, the Philip A. Bryant Melanoma Foundation serves as a means of preserving the spirit and memory of Phil Bryant - the son, brother, nephew, cousin, and friend who passed away September 7, 2006 from complications of melanoma. The Philip A. Bryant Foundation provides the public with innovations in prevention and treatment of melanoma through on-going research and consultations with professionals in the field. Proceeds from this golf tournament help fund the work done on behalf of the memory of Philip.
